San Nicolas Main Street Lights Out Again !

San Nicolas always gets the dirty part of the stick, now it's our MAIN STREET with out any working street lights! What suppose to be one of our pride and joy, is being heavily neglected. We would like our government to put the departments that are being paid to fix these things to come up to San Nicolas and do their jobs, it's not safe at all with out lights.

Christmas In July? Come On, It's Time To Go!

When the lights go up Christmas time, all types of political persons pose and take pictures like " Look San Nicolas Look What I Did For You!" Please check your calendar folks it's July and a dry one at it. People are complaining that seeing this is a sign that we San Nicolas are way down the priority list like always. We would like the one in charge of this to please take care of this, we can understand a few weeks or even a month delay, but not 6 months, thats way to long. The question is, if this was downtown would it be still up,and looking like this?

Change (Poem)

The only thing that is constant is change,

Consistency in the changes that time brings

As sure as we are that the wind blows and birds sings

We can be sure that changes will bring new levels or links

Links created by cycles, patterns we refuse to let go,

New levels by accepting the challenge that forces us to grow,

Choosing links is choosing bigger disappointments as we refuse to let go,

Choosing growth is choosing to flow with time and the changes that presents us with more,

More wisdom, more understanding,

More tenacity, courage for firm standing,

So Forget the former things, do not dwell on the past.

He is doing a new thing,

A road in the wilderness,

Removing all stagnancy, removing feear of the new

And if you step back, He will do

“Happy to give back – Meals on Wheels project”

The Covid-19 pandemic hit the world and we, Aruba are no exception on the rule. Since the ‘hit’ Aruba went on a total lockdown. During that lock down many families reached at the brink of financial/economic collapse. To support those in need the project “Happy to give back” was created by CEDE-Aruba. Many famous Arubans such as Xander B. Saraquita Offringa, Dr Edward Cheung and many have given their support to the project. Through this project CEDE generated funds to support three major projects.

The Fundacion pa Nos Comunidad, Un man pa nos muchanan(school breakfast) and the YMCA meals project are financed with the collected funds. The funds are being divided as follow, 75% goes to FpNC, 15% goes to the school breakfast program and the rest, 10% goes to the YMCA Meals on Wheels project.

Meals on Wheels project;

On april 20, 2020 the project was initiated. The contents of the project is, that with the 10% of the collected the CEDE-Aruba will purchase the necessary material and the kitchen staff of the YMCA together with a group of volunteers will prepare meals that will be distributed by the Aruban Red Cross over the whole island.

Initially the project started by preparing one hundred meals per day, but this was of short duration. On Monday April 27 the petition was filed to increase the amount from one to two hundred meals per day. The YMCA has complied. Up to today, July 19, 2020 the YMCA of Aruba and its San Nicolas division has produced seventeen thousand five hundred meals and we are proud to contribute.

YMCA has two paid staff in service for their kitchen duties and they work from Monday to Friday, together with a group of volunteers, provided through CEDE-Aruba volunteers bank and a special end of the week volunteer staff (Friday-Sunday) provide the necessary services.

During the week end the volunteer staff invites special groups/entities and more to support the project. On Saturdays they mostly invite youth groups to give a helping hand so they can transfer the volunteerism spirit from the elderly to the youth and on Sundays they try to get organized elderly entities to join in their endeavors.

Past Saturday the DeMolay Aruba Chapter group was participant to the project and on Sunday it was the San Nicolas Business Association.

If you or your organization wants to be a part of this beautiful “Happy to give back” project or you or your organization want to contribute in one way or the other, please don’t hesitate to seek the contact.
